

Village of Carmacks
Bylaw 148-05

A BY-LAW OF THE VILLAGE OF CARMACKS PROVIDING FOR THE NAMING OF MUNICIPAL HIGHWAYS AND TO PROVIDE FOR THE ORDERLY NUMBERING OF LOTS AND BUILDINGS WITHIN THE MUNICIPAL BOUNDARIES.

PREAMBLE

WHEREAS Section 265(a) of the Municipal Act, Revised Statutes of the Yukon 2002, Chapter 154 and amendments thereto from time to time, provides that council may pass bylaws respecting the safety and welfare of its residents, and emergency services, and

WHEREAS Section 265(j) of the Municipal Act, Revised Statutes of the Yukon 2002, Chapter 154 and amendments thereto from time to time, provides that council may pass bylaws respecting naming of highways within the municipal boundaries, and

WHEREAS Council wishes to implement a house numbering system and to name certain highways within the municipal boundaries,

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Village of Carmacks in the Yukon Territory duly assembled enacts as follows:

- 1) This bylaw may be cited as the Highway Name and Numbering Bylaw.
- 2) That all Highways within the municipal boundaries of the Village of Carmacks shall be named in accordance with Schedule "A" attached hereto and forming part of this bylaw.
- 3) That the lots and buildings within the municipal boundaries of the Village of Carmacks shall be numbered in accordance with Schedule "A" attached hereto and forming part of this bylaw and as added to, or changed, from time to time by amending this bylaw.
- 4) That every person taking out a development permit for the construction of a new building shall be informed of the number for the building and shall be required to have the same placed on the said building prior to occupancy.
5. Every property owner is required to have the number of their premise placed prominently, preferably next to their front door or the door most visible from their front street, in a location such that it may be illuminated by a light.
6. All building numbers must have a minimum height of four inches (4").
